Testimonials

"It is amazing how 45 minutes watching a play has so much more impact than hours of lectures or hours of reading a book. I will never forget her."

—Judith Rooks, Epidemiologist & Nurse Midwife,
U.S. Dept. of Health & Human Services

"Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Well-Being is an engaging and informative presentation of Lillian Wald's story and legacy. There are many lessons from her story that we can learn from today."

—Melvin Kohn, Director and State Health Officer of the Oregon

"This production is a fabulous way to launch community conversations and to promote public health nursing. Not only is the content still so relevant nearly 75 years after Lillian Wald, it shows how much the passion and work of one person can do to improve the lives of so many."
