

100 years ago,

Lillian Wald changed the world.

Let her inspire you today.

JTC productions share great stories from the past and present and spark conversations about yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Inspire your students today with a JTC performance!

Life, Liberty & the Pursuit of Well-Being

The Story of Lillian Wald

Tirelessly championing our society's most vulnerable, nurse Lillian Wald revolutionized the way we approach health and well-being. From the trenches of the New York tenements to the shores of Japan, Wald's journey serves as a powerful model for perseverance and leadership.

Grades 4 and up

Curriculum Connections: Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Well-Being engages students in lively discussion about the nature of leadership, community organizing, public health policy, and an individual's responsibility to those less fortunate.

Testimonials

"Students were "enthralled", "riveted", "curious", "engaged", "interested", and "motivated."

—Ventura Park Elementary School Teachers,
David Douglas School District

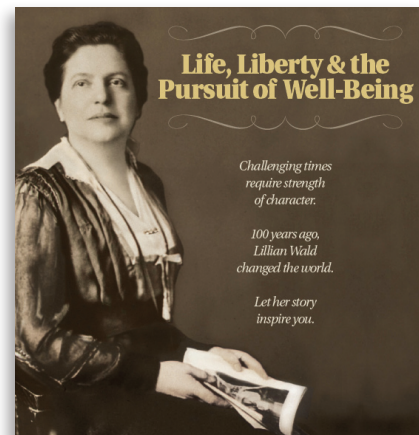

"Wonderful Storytelling, essential learning, humor and audience involvement! Frankly it doesn't get much better!"

— Jenny Cleveland, Staff, Oregon Episcopal School

"It is amazing how 45 minutes watching a play has so much more impact than hours of lectures or hours of reading a book. I will never forget her. The play was fabulous."

— Judith Rooks, Epidemiologist and Nurse Midwife

School Performances are available through Young Audiences
(503) 512-0582 / info@jewishtheatrecolaborative.org

jewishtheatrecolaborative.org
503-512-0582

Young
Audiences
Arts for Learning

Oregon & SW Washington